ARREST OF THE DIAMOND THIEVES.—The thieves who committed the bold robbery at Messrs. Kitts & Wern’s Jewelry store, a short time since, have been arrested in St. Louis, and a large portion of the stolen property recovered. Mr. Werns and officer Blight started to St. Louis yesterday morning to pay them a visit, and to bring them to the city.

A soldier belonging to a cavalry regiment was badly hurt yesterday morning, on Main street, below Floyd, on the body of a female infant, age two days. Verdict—“Came to its death by cruel exposure at the hands of its mother.” Jas. C. GILL, Coroner.

The store of the Methodist book concern, on Third street, which was partially consumed by fire some time ago, has been repaired and supplied with a new stock of books, stationery, &c.

Editor’s Democrat: Please announce that it will be out of my power to be present in the Courthouse this (Thursday) evening, Jan. 29, 1863. JAMES H. BARSTOW.

L. Varell, Esq., of the A. E. Co., favored us yesterday morning with latest New York and S. Louis papers. We thank you, Len, and hope you will “call again.”

Boggs fifty-cent postal currency stamps are in circulation to a considerable extent in this city. Look out for them.

Mr. W. H. Wright—who is always right—furnished us with the latest eastern exchanges yesterday.

PERSONAL.—D. A. Eayar, First Kentucky volunteers, was at the Galt House yesterday.

Several houses were burglariously entered in Newport, Ky., night before last.

THEATER.—This popular place of resort was filled last night with a delighted audience. Miss Charlotte Thompson eclipsed herself last evening in her splendid rendering of “Alice, the Disowned,” and Mr. Massey fully sustained his reputation as an actor in the beautiful piece. To-night will be presented for the first and last time, the beautiful drama of “The Ransom,” in which Miss Thompson will appear as “Pauline Le Blanc.” To-morrow night has been set apart for her benefit, and it will be her last appearance. We bespeak for this charming and beautiful actress an immense audience on the occasion.

Another large assortment of fancy and plain china has just arrived at Gay’s China Palace, Fourth and Green. Mr. Gay has the most complete assortment of housekeeping articles, both useful and ornamental, to be seen in this city. His goods have been purchased at the lowest cash price, and will be sold at old figures. All in want of goods in his line will find it to their interest to examine his immense stock before purchasing elsewhere.

The reporter of the Associated Press at St. Louis, takes great pains to send all over the country a glowing account of an Abolition meeting held at 7 P.M. yesterday. The object of the meeting was the suppression of the rebellion or the good of the nation in any possible way, the probabilities are that he would not have sent away one word in reference to it.

An erroneous impression concerning Mr. R. Courtney—that he had resigned his position in the Southern Bank—may have been created by a paragraph in yesterday’s Democrat. We are happy to state, in correction, that Mr. Courtney will still continue with his usual courtesy, to preside at the counter of that institution.

Sister Julia, Superior of the St. Vincent Orphan Asylum, hereafter acknowledges the receipt of $338 from Messrs. M. and E. German, and J. Harris, the proceeds of a collation given at Masonic Temple, on Thursday evening, January 22, 1863, for the benefit of the orphans.

Job printing of all descriptions, in plain and fancy colors, executed at the shortest possible notice, and at prices to suit the times. Our office is one of the most extensive in the West, and is fully organized and ready. Give us a call. Examine specimens and learn prices.

We have received, from the publishers of the Albany Evening Journal, an elegantly printed pamphlet of 144 pages, called “THE EVENING JOURNAL ALMANAC.” It is rich in statistics. Price, single, 15 cents. It should be on every business man’s table.

The funeral of the late Col. Samuel McKeon took place yesterday afternoon from the Chestnut street Presbyterian Church. It was largely attended by the numerous friends and acquaintances of the late hero and patriot.

TORACCO.—The sales at the various warehouses yesterday, footed up one hundred and eighty five highheads, at very excellent prices—no highhead selling for less than $17. The total, and the average being about $17.

The office connected with the United States Hotel has been remodeled and very handsomely furnished. The “States” is a very popular “institution” in this city.

NO LECTURE.—We are requested to state that there will be no lecture in the Male High School building, in consequence of the continued ill health of Prof. Hailman.

The work on the new office, and addition to the theater, is progressing rapidly, and will, when finished, be quite an ornamental to the establishment.

W. Scott Gore has for sale, at his newsroom, corner Third and Jefferson, Vandallia, ham’s great speech. Call and get one.

Table cutlery and silver-ware plated—large assortment just received at Gay’s China Palace, Fourth and Green.

Some person left a poor horse on the ledge yesterday in a dying condition.

We are indebted to R. S. Lumbkin for Nashville papers of the 27th.
